

CRAM Roofing Selected as a Top Workplace in San Antonio

10/23/10 FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

About Cram Roofing Company

CRAM Roofing is a full-service, commercial roofing contractor. They install and re-roof all types of commercial roofs as well as roof repairs. We work throughout the United States on various military bases, for building owners and managers, and general contractors.

What the employees said:

"I feel trusted and am always amazed that this company provides bonuses on a job well done even in a down economy."

"I feel appreciated because they tell me so!"

"Again, it is clear that this company puts its employees first."

"It helps balance my life because I love my job and working environment - so when I go home, I am not stressed - I am happy!"

"We have an incredibly talented and dedicated team of professionals. It is through their commitment to excellence that we have built our reputation. We are extremely honored to have received this distinction," said Gary Cram.
